

High School Humanities

Due to increased enrolment, Houston Christian School (HCS) is prayerfully seeking a Christ-like individual to fill a possible full-time opening at the high school level for the fall of 2018. The position is likely in the area of the Humanities but can be tailored to fit the applicant.

The interdenominational community of HCS, currently home to 160 students from Kindergarten to grade 12, was established in 1962 in the natural resource based town of Houston.

HCS's vision is to "Educate, Engage, and Equip ... to the Glory of God". HCS has a newly developed Strategic Plan to guide us as we move forward in God's will.

Applicants should be willing to show a commitment to the community by being involved in a local church and be either currently possessing or willing to apply for a B.C. teacher's certificate.

If this position interests you or if you have a more general interest in becoming part of the HCS teaching staff, we prayerfully ask you to apply.

For more information or to apply, please contact Marshall Duzan, HCS administrator, by email to marshall.duzan@houstonchristianschool.ca or call 250-845-7736. You are also welcome to text or call 250-845-8395.
